FIGHTING AIDS IN HAWAII AND THE PACIFIC

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Life Foundation Now Recruiting Restaurants for Oahu Dines 2007!

Honolulu, HI – January 10, 2007 – Life Foundation is now recruiting restaurants to sign up for Oahu Dines 2007. Oahu Dines is an annual event where restaurants on Oahu join together to support Life Foundation, Hawaii's oldest and largest AIDS organization. Participating restaurants donate a portion of their proceeds earned on Wednesday, February 28, 2007 to support Life Foundation's work and promote HIV/AIDS awareness in Hawaii.

Last year, 23 restaurants participated, raising over $15,000 for Life Foundation. Past Oahu Dines restaurants include Big City Diner, Baci Bistro, El Charro Mexican Seafood Restaurant, and Tikis Grill and Bar.

Oahu Dines also offers marketing benefits to participating restaurants. Communications Pacific, Oceanic Time Warner Cable, and Hawaii Diner.com have signed on as promotional sponsors for Oahu Dines 2007.

“Volcano Joe's has participated in Oahu Dines the past two years,” says Les Iczkovitz, Owner of Volcano Joes. “It has proven to be a great way to give back to the community and at the same time become much more visible and attractive to the members of the community that the Life Foundation services.”

Life Foundation is encouraging everyone to eat out at a participating restaurant on Wednesday, February 28 and to patronize these restaurants throughout the year, to thank them for their support in the fight against AIDS.

Restaurants interested in signing on and patrons interested in dining out to support Life Foundation on February 28 can get more information by visiting www.oahudines.org.
